"The entire Browns organization recognizes the importance and accountability in giving back to the community that provides us with so much support on the field and beyond," said Managing and Principal Partners, Dee and Jimmy Haslam. "Through our Browns Give Back initiative and the Cleveland Browns Foundation's Stay in the Game! Network, we're able to prioritize our efforts and create lasting impacts in the spaces of education, youth football and equitable opportunities throughout Northeast Ohio."

The Browns' emphasis on education and youth football advances their unwavering commitment to prioritize the well-being of children, who symbolize the future of our city. When the children of Northeast Ohio succeed and accomplish their goals it becomes a collective victory, for everyone in the area, including the Browns. The same goes for volunteerism, which is encouraged and amplified through First and Ten, not only locally but in the cities in which fans and teammates live.

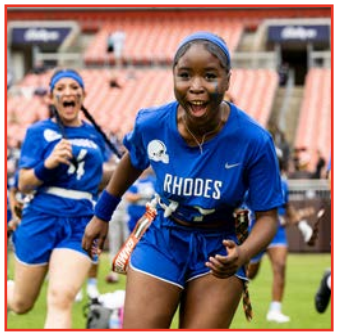
BROWNS GIVE BACK - GIRLS HIGH SCHOOL FLAG FOOTBALL

On July 17th, Ohio became the 17th state to officially sanction girls flag football as a varsity sport. The decision was announced at the NFL Flag Championships at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio by the Ohio High School Athletic Association alongside the Cleveland Browns, the Cincinnati Bengals and the NFL.

2021	2022	2023	2024	2025
2 teams	9 teams	30 teams	51 teams	88 teams



In 2021, alongside Northeast Ohio Flag Football, the Browns began the implementation of their Girls High School Flag Football program, presented by Gatorade and in association with Bridgestone, throughout the region and created the first Girls High School Flag Football division in Ohio. Over the past five seasons, the number of Northeast Ohio high schools with teams has grown from two to 88.

As flag football becomes one of the fastest-growing sports in the United States, the decision to sanction girls flag football is monumental for the state of Ohio as we look ahead to the 2028 Olympic Games in Los Angeles where the sport will be a part of the competition for the first time.

To support the growth of girls flag football, the Browns provide essential resources to participating schools, including covering officiating fees, 25 uniform sets provided by NIKE and an all-inclusive toolkit provided by USA Football that is filled with all the necessary equipment needed for practice and games. This initiative reduces the barriers for schools and ensures that all athletes have access to the tools they need to succeed.

BROWNS GIVE BACK - FIELD PROJECTS

The Cleveland Browns are committed to assisting in the development, safety and growth of youth and high school football throughout Northeast Ohio with year-round programming for players, coaches, officials and parents. Through camps, clinics and other initiatives, the Browns goal is to promote healthy social, emotional, intellectual and physical development of youth by enhancing opportunities for youth football participation and education.

As part of the Browns' dedication to education, youth and high school football as well as Northeast Ohio, Dee and Jimmy Haslam, JW and Whitney Johnson and the Browns organization have helped install 17 high-quality synthetic turf fields in the past eight years at schools and community organizations throughout the region. While each field is lined to permit frequent use by various sports groups, including football, soccer, and more, one primary focus is to offer youth educational tools through these "outdoor classrooms," which allow opportunities to participate in extracurricular activities that support attendance, school engagement and overall personal growth. The site selection process prioritizes promoting equal access to beneficial educational resources to everyone throughout the community, no matter their race, gender or economic status.

The project launched in May 2016, when the Haslams and Browns made an unprecedented commitment in the NFL to install new surfaces at five Cleveland Metropolitan School District (CMSD) schools over a two-year span. During the community impact project's planning stages, CMSD identified five locations that would create the most significant results throughout the city. This past spring marked the groundbreaking of Collinwod Athletic Complex field in partnership with the City of Cleveland, bringing the total to 16 fields since 2016.

Throughout the region, the new field installments have provided areas for physical education classes, while also providing community members additional access to the spaces. With the implementation of synthetic turf, many time limitations related to grass field maintenance have been eliminated.

The field projects also provided spaces for learning and afterschool activities, which is pivotal for increased attendance. Through the Cleveland Browns Foundation's Stay in the Game Network!, the organization is continuously looking for resources to help increase student attendance, and the field projects have contributed to that. The surfaces created as part of the field projects have also housed Browns youth football programming including flag football, Rookie Tackle and 11-man play as well as youth football LEGENDS clinics with Browns alumni hosting annually in the summer at each site, at no charge, for youth athletes in the surrounding communities.

BROWNS GIVE BACK - YOUTH FOOTBALL

HELMETS PROGRAM

HELMETS, presented by Meijer and in association with University Hospitals, aims to advance player safety by awarding two eligible Ohio area high school football programs with $25,000 in new football helmets. Since 2016, the Browns have donated nearly 4,000 helmets to youth and high school football programs throughout Northeast Ohio. As a prerequisite, programs must commit to enhancing player health and safety by enrolling in USA Football's medically endorsed Youth Football Certification course, which offers certification clinics to educate coaches about concussion recognition and response protocols, proper equipment fitting, shoulder tackling, heads up blocking, heat emergency preparedness and hydration and sudden cardiac arrest. The Browns most recently awarded 270 custom helmets to the North Coast Youth Football League, Briggs High School and Bedford High School for the 2024 season.

JR. BROWNS

As part of the Cleveland Browns' commitment to assisting the development, safety and growth of youth and high school football throughout Ohio, Jr. Browns NFL FLAG is the team's official youth football program committed to children 5-14 years (K-8th grade). It provides boys and girls opportunities to play in one of the NFL's largest organized non-contact football leagues.

Participants get the opportunity to be coached by local youth & high school coaches, participate in daily flag & tackle football competitions, challenges and experience once-in-a-lifetime activities! Additionally, 175 athletes received scholarships to the camps to ensure kids who wanted to play had the opportunity to.

BROWNS GIVE BACK - YOUTH FOOTBALL

LEGENDS CLINIC

With the new high-quality synthetic turf fields throughout Greater Cleveland, Akron, Lorain and Toledo, the Browns have helped create new opportunities to play football in the region. To further their support, the Browns in the summer of 2018 introduced the Cleveland Browns LEGENDS Clinic. Through the program, over 5,000 kids have already had the opportunity to attend a free clinic where Browns alumni serve as Play Football Ambassadors while high school coaches offer up tips and hands-on instruction. LEGENDS Clinics, presented by Office Revolution and in association with University Hospitals, Cardinal Credit Union and Ohio CAT, hosts Browns Alumni and local high school football coaches who will offer tips and hands-on instruction, including lectures, fundamental football skills stations, contests and non-contact games in a high-energy, fun, and positive environment. The LEGENDS Clinics are open to boys & girls ages 8-14 and is great for all athletes of all skill levels, whether they are new to the game or have been playing for years.

ROOKIE TACKLE

Launched in 2016, Rookie Tackle is a modified game to introduce tackle football to youth players. Designed by USA Football, the Browns helped launch the Rookie Tackle model as part of the Football Development Model, which serves as a bridge game from flag football to traditional 11-player tackle football.

In 2017, Rookie Tackle was implemented in Northeast Ohio and currently has 19 leagues competing.

Unlike traditional 11-player tackle, all players will have the opportunity to learn and play multiple positions. A 7-on-7 format allows for higher coach-to-player ratio leading to advanced player skill development. Another noticeable difference is the smaller field to fit the right age, right stage of the player.

In line with other sports' development models, Rookie Tackle offers young participants an opportunity to be introduced to or progressively learn more about football fundamentals, strategy and the game itself before advancing to full 11-on-11, 100-yard competition that is equivalent to the high school,

OFFICIALS PATHWAY PROGRAM

As part of the partnership between the National Football League (NFL) and the National Federation of State High School Associations (NFHS) to help increase recognition and participation of high school football officials, the Cleveland Browns' nominated officiating crew was selected as the first ever NFL High School Football Officials 'Crew of the Year' in 2024. In continuing the efforts to increase participation and recognition of high school football officials, the Browns have also launched the "Officials Pathway Program" which supports, recognizes and promotes officials at all levels of the game.

HIGH SCHOOL GAME OF THE WEEK

The Cleveland Browns High School Game of the Week (HSGOTW) returns this fall for the 16th consecutive year, presented by Ohio CAT in association with ForeverLawn. Since the program began, more than eight million votes have been submitted for weekly matchups posted on ClevelandBrowns.com, making the Game of the Week page one of the most visited pages on ClevelandBrowns.com.

The Cleveland Browns Girls High School Flag Football Coach of the Week program recognizes and celebrates 10 outstanding coaches who are making a meaningful impact in growing the sport of girls flag football across Northeast Ohio. Each week during the spring season, coaches are nominated and selected based on their leadership, commitment to player development, and dedication to advancing opportunities for female athletes. The program highlights the Browns' ongoing investment in youth and high school flag football, while honoring those who are championing the game at the grassroots level.

Last year, Cleveland Heights High School Football Head Coach Mac Stephens was named the 2024 Cleveland Browns High School Coach of the Year. Through the program, $30,000 was distributed to support multiple teams' programs' health and safety. In addition, we were proud to celebrate Avon football who won their first state championship in 2024. Rayshon Banks, head coach of Euclid High School's girls flag football team, was honored as the inaugural 2025 Cleveland Browns Girls High School Flag Football Coach of the Year for his unwavering commitment to teaching teamwork, discipline, resilience, and empowering his players both on and off the field.

ADAPTED FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Established in 2011 as the first competitive adapted football program in Ohio, with Achievement Centers for Children, the Cleveland Browns Adapted Football League gives children and adults of all abilities the opportunity to participate in an organized, competitive and developmental sport that would otherwise be unavailable to them. The primary focus for each player includes (1) skill development, (2) social interaction and (3) physical exercise. The league is organized into two divisions, including one for players using wheelchairs. The Adapted Football League began its 15th season in June 2024, in partnership with Achievement Centers for Children and serves over 120 athletes each year.

BROWNS GIVE BACK - EQUITABLE OPPORTUNITIES

#BETHESOLUTION

Following the tragic death of George Floyd in 2020, and as protests spread from coast to coast and across the globe, Browns Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager Andrew Berry on June 5 sent a passionate email to all Browns employees. Ultimately, it served as the inspiration for a call to action that now includes Browns fans through the team's #BeTheSolution campaign. Berry's email started with a message of empathy and sympathy to those who have struggled to focus on the day-to-day not only because of what was transpiring in the wake of Floyd's death, but also the tragedies involving Breonna Taylor, Ahmaud Arbery and other victims representing the African American community. In his email, Berry encouraged staff to take one of three significant steps to educate themselves and/or make a donation to an organization committed to social equality initiatives. Berry's call to action encouraged the organization to be instruments for change and since its inception to the Cleveland Browns organization numerous programs has been put in place to create impactful change and opportunity.

BILL WILLIS COACHING FELLOWSHIP

The Browns created the Bill Willis Coaching Fellowship in 2020 to provide opportunities for a rising minority coach with a focus on the offensive side of the ball. The Fellowship honors Bill Willis, who helped break the color barrier in the NFL and played for the Browns from 1946-1953. Ashton Grant, the first recipient of the team's Bill Willis Coaching Fellowship, earned a full-time role with the Browns as an offensive quality control coach in 2022 after two years as a fellow became the team's offensive assistant/quarterbacks. In early 2025, Grant was hired by the New England Patriots to be their quarterbacks coach. Israel Woolfork was the second recipient of the fellowship and was named the quarterbacks coach of the Arizona Cardinals after two seasons as a fellow. Nemo Washington joined the Browns in 2023 as the third recipient of the fellowship and is now the offensive coordinator at Delaware State. In 2025, Michael Bearden became the fourth recipient of the Bill Willis Coaching Fellowship.

BUILD THE BRIDGE

The Browns partnership with Build the Bridge through #BeTheSolution was established by Cleveland Heights coaches Mac Stephens and Kahari Hicks and Lorain Head Coach Damion Creel. Build the Bridge strives to create a coalition of coaches, players, parents, administration and community members to foster the success of student-athletes through social-emotional, educational, and athletic advancement. The program creates opportunities for all team members to build relationships and mutual respect between diverse communities, regardless of their race, class or creed.

CLEVELAND'S ALI SUMMIT CIVIL RIGHTS TRAIL MARKER

In September 2023, the Cleveland Browns and the Cleveland Restoration Society unveiled Cleveland's Ali Summit Civil Rights Trail Marker at Cleveland Browns Stadium's south plaza. The Ali Summit Civil Rights Trail marker is about the legendary meeting that took place on June 4, 1967, co-developed by Browns Legend Jim Brown with the Black Economic Union and a group of leading Black professional athletes -mainly Browns athletes - to support boxer Muhammad Ali, who repeatedly refused to serve in the United States military in Vietnam. The group played a pivotal role in shaping a new concept of Black liberation, emphasizing financial independence and providing job training to disadvantaged youth, at the Negro Industrial and Economic Union headquarters on Euclid Avenue in Cleveland, Ohio.

CLEVELAND HUDDLE

The Cleveland Huddle began in February 2021 in alignment with the team's Black History Month celebration and #BeTheSolution initiative to assist Black-owned restaurants while also providing food relief to individuals in need. To date, the program has served over 12 different restaurants and homeless shelters.

CLEVELAND HUDDLE PATHWAY

The Browns created the Cleveland Huddle Pathway program in 2024 to expose local high school students in the Stay in the Game! Network to the many career opportunities available in sports, aside from being an athlete. Students were invited to CrossCountry Mortgage Campus, given a tour of the Browns offices and training facilities, and learned about working in sports from a panel of front office staff.

INSPIRE CHANGE JIM BROWN CHANGEMAKERS AWARD

As part of the NFL's 2022 Inspire Change Changemaker Awards, one of which is honored by each of the league's 32 teams, the Browns announced their accolade would be called the "Inspire Change Jim Brown Changemakers Award" to honor Pro Football Hall of Famer Jim Brown, who was a civil rights leader during and beyond his football career. Sheila Mason was named the 2024 Jim Brown Inspire Change Changemaker nominee. The team surprised Mason during a visit to CrossCountry Mortgage Campus where she was recognized during a team meeting for her unwavering commitment to community engagement and justice. Mason, a retired Chief of Police, was honored for her service to the Village of Woodmere and more than four decades in law enforcement and her passion for bridging the gap between law enforcement and the community. Through the support of Conversations for Change, a program that supports open dialogue between high school students and local police departments to allow them to understand the power of their voice and learn the importance of their actions, with the ultimate goal of creating positive communities through understanding, Mason has been a true advocate for community relations alongside the Browns. As the first woman to hold the Sergeant-at-Arms position for the National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE), and through the creation of Conversations for Change, Mason has continued to mentor youth throughout her career and joins local leaders, officers, and community organizations in continued efforts to enact change across Northeast Ohio.

INSPIRE CHANGE

As part of the league's Inspire Change initiative, the Cleveland Browns stand in solidarity through their #BeTheSolution initiative with all the people across our community and country making the commitment, effort and sacrifice necessary to demand and work together towards positive change. Over the past five years, the organization has distributed over $2.5 million in grants aimed to partner with organizations that are helping to promote social justice and create equitable opportunities. The Cleveland Browns organization is committed to becoming an instrument for change in the following ways:

1. Help create equity through economic advancement for members of disadvantaged communities across Northeast Ohio.
2. Partner with local organizations to provide access to capital and skill training opportunities for individuals from disadvantaged backgrounds and communities.

EDWINS LEADERSHIP & RESTAURANT INSTITUTE

The Browns have invested in the areas of criminal justice reform as well as re-entry programs by annually supporting EDWINS Leadership & Restaurant Institute–including more than $595,000 in grants since 2017. Founded in 2007, EDWINS Leadership & Restaurant Institute gives formerly incarcerated adults a foundation in the culinary and hospitality industry while providing a support network necessary to their long-term success. To date, less than one percent of EDWINS graduates have been reincarcerated. During the five years of the partnership, the Browns have helped fund Leadership Training, Expansion/Creation of both the Butcher Shop and Family Housing, in addition to helping fund curriculum that over 450,000 inmates have access to.

JUMPSTART

In partnership with JumpStart, the Browns aim to help bridge resource gaps and accelerate economic outcomes for black and minority-owned small businesses throughout the City of Cleveland and Northeast Ohio. Since joining forces with JumpStart three years ago, the partnership has held four Small Business Impact Showcases--a demo-style competition where program participants use their knowledge and skills to present their pitch to a panel of judges for a chance to take home up to $10,000 to grow their business. In addition, two Small Business Training Camps were hosted at Cleveland Browns Stadium where participants learned fundamentals of securing small business capital from industry leaders and business advisors, including keynotes, workshops, business networking and a four-minute pitch competition featuring Cleveland-based entrepreneurs vying for opportunity to take home cash prizes to grow their business. The partnership has resulted in over 30 minority and black-owned businesses experiencing a 60% average growth in revenue as well significate employment growth.

JIMMY AND DEE HASLAM

MANAGING AND PRINCIPAL PARTNERS

15TH YEAR | 14TH YEAR

SCHOOL UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE | HOMETOWN KNOXVILLE, TENN.

Dee and Jimmy Haslam are committed to restoring championship Cleveland Browns football. To best position the team for success, the Haslams have consistently invested in the organization and its facilities to provide the best resources available while working diligently and responsibly in partnership with the City of Cleveland and the City of Berea.

The Haslams have established three primary focus areas to shape the team's culture in Northeast Ohio, guiding all key processes and decisions within the organization. The club's standard is centered on providing a consistently winning team on the football field, taking exceptional care of the team's fans by providing a premier experience throughout the ye and striving to make a positive impact in the Northeast Ohio community with an emphasis on education, youth football and equitable opportunity.

In addition to the Browns, Dee and Jimmy also serve as the CEO and Chairman of the Haslam Sports Group (HSG). After the family acquired the Columbus Crew in 2019, they formed the Haslam Sports Group (HSG). In 2023, the family secured a controlling interest in the Milwaukee Bucks, as the NBA Board of Governors approved an HSG ownership share purchase, giving the family-run business, ownership stakes in three of the five major North American professional sports leagues. The Bucks investment also includes control and operation of Fiserv Forum; the Froedtert and the Medical College of Wisconsin Sports Science Center; the team's training center; the Wisconsin Herd, the Bucks G League affiliate; and Bucks Gaming, the team's 2K League affiliate.

HSG's mission is to engage and unite communities through premier sports and entertainment experiences. It strives to create world-class organizations that achieve sustainable success but also redefine the fan experience and give back to their region while serving as stewards of true community assets. HSG's current portfolio includes the Cleveland Browns, operating rights to the Columbus Crew, a controlling interest in the Milwaukee Bucks, and current in-vestments in Misfits Gaming Group, StatusPro, Jackpot.com, Lyte, Cast Iron Media, Wicket, ChargeFUZE, WNBA, ManCan and Courtside VC.

CREATING A TRANSFORMATIONAL STADIUM AND MIXED-USE DEVELOPMENT FOR NORTHEAST OHIO

For the 2029 season, with unprecedented private investment, the Browns plan to open a new era for their fans that will bring a world-class stadium experience to Northeast Ohio with the opening of a new enclosed Huntington Bank Field. The $3+ billion economic development project, Northeast Ohio's largest to date, will include Ohio's first dome stadium and an adjacent mixed-use development just 12 miles from downtown Cleveland in Brook Park, Ohio. The public-private partnership will leverage $2+ billion in private investment to generate the fiscal impact necessary for the project to pay for itself while also bringing unparalleled economic opportunity to the region. The new stadium will be a first-of-its-kind and will set out to redefine the fan experience, all with the intent to draw the world's biggest concerts and most significant sporting events year-round to Northeast Ohio.

EXPANDING THE CROSSCOUNTRY MORTGAGE CAMPUS

In June of 2025, the Browns broke ground on their CrossCountry Mortgage Campus Expansion. An extension of the existing footprint of the Cleveland Browns in Berea, this new neighborhood will be over 16 acres and utilized for a variety of spaces benefiting the region with an anticipated opening in early 2027.

The CrossCountry Mortgage Campus Expansion will include a mixed-use neighborhood adjacent to the existing Cleveland Browns facility, and will include a community field lined for multiple sports for youth, high school and adult participation, The

Barker Hotel – a Tribute Portfolio Hotel by Marriott developed in partnership with Craw-ford Hoying and operated by Shaner Hotel Group, a sports medicine facility operated by the team health-system partner, University Hospitals (UH), market-rate apartments, office space and 15k square footage of retail space to support the new pedestrian-friendly neighborhood.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

The Haslam family is committed to helping children and families reach their full potential by removing barriers and providing equal access to quality education and community resources. They are committed to creating measurable, sustainable and meaningful positive change in these areas. Since 2014, the family's philanthropic efforts across Northeast Ohio have amounted to over $150 million in private investment for causes that positively impact education, health & human services, equitable opportunity, and youth football.

The Haslams are deeply immersed in supporting programs for youth that improve chances for academic success and motivate children to go to school. They have also focused on renovating football and soccer fields throughout Northeast Ohio, Columbus, and Knoxville. These community assets are used for sports and recreational programs that keep children and families active, engaged and inspired.

The Haslams have refurbished many Cleveland public schools' athletic fields and have installed 16 high-quality synthetic turf fields across Northeast Ohio. The efforts have also been focused in Knoxville, providing funding to transform 13 fields at area high schools. As part of the Crew's year-round efforts to grow participation in the game of soccer and impact youth education, the Club's mini-pitch initiative now encompasses six locations.

"We are committed to creating opportunities for our youth so that they can reach their full potential, and getting to school every day and staying engaged sets the foundation for their success and the future of our state," said Dee Haslam. "Through the Stay in the Game! Attendance Network and our installation of youth soccer and football fields in Ohio and Tennessee, we want to help students and districts access the resources they need to excel in the classroom and beyond."

Launched in 2019 to increase attendance in the state, the Stay in the Game! Attendance Network– a partnership be-tween the Cleveland Browns Foundation, Columbus Crew, the Ohio Department of Education and Workforce and Harvard University's Proving Ground – collaborated with districts and schools to provide resources created by in-dustry experts to address chronic absenteeism. In May 2024, Battelle, an Ohio-based science and technology company, became a partner and the network host for The Stay in the Game! Attendance Network, which now serves over 200 partner school districts and nearly 550,000 students in Ohio.

Aligned with that focus, the Haslam 3 Foundation donated $4.5 million to education-based programs that give school-aged children more access to three arts organizations in Cleveland: Playhouse Square, the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and the Cleveland Orchestra.

The Haslam 3 Foundation also recently made a $2 million leadership gift to the United Way of Greater Cleveland and another $2 million donation to the Pelotonia for cancer research, with $1.5 million directed explicitly towards Chronic Lymphocytic Leukemia (CLL) research. In 2023, the Haslams established the new University Hospitals Haslam Sports Innovation Center because the health and well-being of the athletes and the communities in which they live and work are of the utmost importance to them. The Haslams recognized a unique opportunity to invest in sports medicine, developing new technologies and innovations that enhance performance, contribute to the future of sport and promote healthier athletes.

Dee and Jimmy also launched the Haslam Sports Group Diversity and Opportunity Fellowship in 2021. Designed to improve the pipeline of diverse future sports industry leaders, the year-long sports business fellowship at the Columbus Crew and the Cleveland Browns provides a unique, immersive opportunity to recent college graduates.

Dee and Jimmy have led the Browns' efforts to create equitable opportunity throughout Northeast Ohio The Browns have hosted three social justice summits: two that brought together the Cleveland Police Department with Cleveland Metropolitan School District high school students to create a forum for open and honest dialogue about social injustice and another that brought community and civic leaders to the Browns facility to engage players and the entire organization. Since 2022, the Browns, through their equitable opportunity efforts, have supported minority and black-owned businesses through a partnership with Jumpstart, a Northeast Ohio-based, nationally recognized venture development organization providing capital, services and connections to help entrepreneurs grow and corporations innovate.

Dee and Jimmy have received several honors for promoting diversity and inclusion. Jimmy was honored by the Cleveland branch of the NAACP at its 105th Anniversary Celebration Freedom Fund Dinner, and the Haslams received their first award as members of the NFL in 2014 when they were recognized by the Fritz Pollard Alliance with the Paul' Tank" Younger Award for promoting diversity within NFL front offices. Dee and Jimmy Haslam were also presented with the Maltz Heritage Award, recognizing their transformational leadership, civic en-gagement, and philanthropic contributions in Northeast Ohio.

The Haslams also worked strategically and passionately to bring the 2021 NFL Draft to Cleveland, knowing the impact it could have on the community to host such a signature event.

The Haslams also have always been committed to the Knoxville community and are dedicated to positively impact-ing the region. In 2020, the Haslam family donated $35 million to Knoxville's Lakeshore Park to improve baseball fields, soccer fields and other amenities outlined in the park's master plan. Dee and Jimmy helped co-found the Haslam Scholars Program in 2008. The program offers unique, in-depth academic enrichment for top students at the University of Tennessee. In December 2019, the Haslams helped open the doors to the Haslam-Sansom Ministry Complex in the Lonsdale community of Knoxville, Tenn. The $8 million privately funded project by the Haslam and Sansom families consists of 30,000 square feet. It includes two fields, which can be used for soccer or football, a gymnasium with two full-sized basketball courts, a chapel, a community room and a medical clinic. It was built for the Emerald Youth Foundation, and the complex will serve more than 1,400 young people within Emerald and help hundreds of families in the underserved Lonsdale neighborhood.

COLUMBUS CREW

In January 2019, the Haslams expanded their sports interests and investments when they reached an agreement with Major League Soccer to operate the Columbus Crew. After only two seasons as investor-operators, the club captured MLS Cup 2020, their second championship in league history. In 2023, the Crew brought the second championship to the Haslam family when they captured another MLS Cup, their third overall, with a 2-1 victory over LAFC. The Crew opened their newly constructed downtown Columbus stadium, Lower.com Field, in July of 2021. Designed to complement the city of Columbus' modern, dynamic, and diverse characteristics,

Lower.com Field anchors a mixed-use development neighborhood called Astor Park. The club also completed construction of a world-class training facility named the Ohio Health Performance Center in June 2021. ANDREW BERRY

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS AND GENERAL MANAGER

17TH YEAR | 9TH YEAR

SCHOOL HARVARD UNIVERSITY | HOMETOWN BEL AIR, MD.

Andrew Berry was named the Browns Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager on Jan. 28, 2020. Berry re-joined the Browns staff after serving as Vice President of Player Personnel from 2016-18.

During his five seasons as Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager, Berry has helped build rosters that have accounted for two 11-win seasons and two playoff appearances.

On March 9, 2025, the Browns agreed to a four-year contract extension with perennial All-Pro DE Myles Garrett. He is the only player in NFL history to record at least 14 sacks in four consecutive seasons (2021-24). Garrett led the NFL with 22 tackles-for-loss and finished second in the league with 14 sacks in 2024.

In 2024, Berry spearheaded a trade for WR Jerry Jeudy, who went on to set the Browns single season reception record with 90. While totaling 1,229 receiving yards on the season, Jeudy recorded 235 at Denver on Dec. 2, which was the second-highest output by an NFL player in 2024 and the fourth-highest total by a Brown in a game. Jeudy was named to his first career Pro Bowl. In addition, G Joel Bitonio was named to his seventh career Pro Bowl, Garrett to his sixth and CB Denzel Ward to his fourth.

In total, the Browns have had nine players account for 23 Pro Bowl selections since 2020, the most by the team over a five-year stretch since 1986-90 (23). In 2023 alone, the Browns had seven players selected to the Pro Bowl, the club's most since sending eight in 1988. Berry has been instrumental in retaining and acquiring top talent, signing all nine of those Pro Bowlers (Bitonio, RB Nick Chubb, WR Amari Cooper, Garrett, Jeudy, TE David Njoku, LB Jeremiah Owusu-Koramoah, G Wyatt Teller and Ward) to contract extensions.

In his first season at the helm, Berry shaped a roster that helped the team to their first playoff appearance since 2002 and first playoff victory in 26 years. Berry used an aggressive approach to improve the roster during his first offseason, including inking Garrett to a five-year contract extension and signing unrestricted free agent RT Jack Conklin. Both Garrett and Conklin went on to earn first-team All-Pro honors in 2020, while Bitonio and Teller were each second team selections.

During the 2021 season, Browns inked Bitonio and Teller to contract extensions. Bitonio, a seven-time Pro Bowl selection and five-time All-Pro honoree, and Teller, a three-time Pro Bowler and two-time All-Pro honoree, were both signed through the 2025 season. During the 2021 NFL Draft, the Browns selected CB Greg Newsome and Owusu-Koramoah with their first two picks. Both players were named to the PFWA's 2021 NFL All-Rookie team.

Berry helped re-shape the Browns offense with two trades during the 2022 offseason. The team acquired five-time Pro Bowler Cooper and three-time Pro Bowl QB Deshaun Watson. The team also signed three-time Pro Bowler Ward and one-time Pro Bowler Njoku to contract extensions prior to the 2022 season.

Despite the club being ravaged by injuries in 2023, including season-ending injuries to Chubb, Conklin and Watson, the team was able to win 11 regular season games. The Browns became the seventh team in the Super Bowl era (1966) to earn at least one win with four different starting quarterbacks in the same season. Watson finished the season 5-1 as a starter and QB Joe Flacco went 4-1 as a starter. Flacco, who was first signed to the Browns roster on Dec. 2, was named the NFL Comeback Player of the Year. Defensively, Berry assembled a roster that went on to lead the NFL in several categories including total defense (270.2 yards per game), passing defense (164.7 yards per game), third down percentage (67-of-230 for 29.1 percent) and first downs allowed (253). The team's 270.2 net yards allowed per game were the fewest allowed in the NFL since the 2014 Seahawks (267.1) and the fewest allowed by a Browns team since 1957. The Browns also set a franchise record for sacks in a season with 48.

In his first stint with the Browns, Berry first worked under Executive Vice President of Football Operations Sashi Brown followed by General Manager John Dorsey. He helped lead all talent evaluation efforts for the club, including college prospects and NFL free agents. He also helped in overseeing the club's scouting department and worked closely with other high-ranking members of the front office.

During Berry's first three drafts with the Browns, the team selected at least one future Pro Bowler every year: LB Joe Schobert (fourth round, 2016), Garrett (first round, 2017), Njoku (first round, 2017), QB Baker Mayfield (first round, 2018), Ward (first round, 2018) and Chubb (second round, 2018).

In between his stints with the Browns, Berry served as the Vice President of Football Operations with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2019. In his one draft with the Eagles, Philadelphia used a second-round pick on RB Miles Sanders, who went on to lead all NFL rookies in scrimmage yards with 1,327, set an Eagles rookie rushing record with 818 yards and later made the Pro Bowl.

Berry also spent seven seasons (2009-15) in the Indianapolis Colts front office, including his final four as pro scouting coordinator. He started with the Colts in 2009 as a scouting assistant and was promoted to pro scout in 2011 before being elevated to pro scouting coordinator in 2012. During his time in Indianapolis, the Colts won four AFC South titles, made five postseason appearances and advanced to Super Bowl XLIV. From 2009-15, Indianapolis won 67 games, the sixth-most in the NFL during that span.

In the Colts' front office, Berry managed the free agency process, scouted upcoming opponents and evaluated NFL players and players from other professional leagues. He also assisted with college scouting, preparation for the NFL draft and participated in contract negotiations during free agency.

Berry graduated cum laude from Harvard University with a bachelor's degree in economics and a master's degree in computer science in four years. While at Harvard, he was a four-year starter as a cornerback and was a three-time All-Ivy League team selection and an All-America honoree. He totaled 125 career tackles and five interceptions playing for the Crimson.

Berry was one of five finalists for the John Wooden Citizenship Cup, which is awarded to the nation's highest-achieving student-athlete who best displays character, teamwork and citizenship. He was a finalist for the Draddy Trophy as the national scholar-athlete of the year and was named the 2009 Football Championship Subdivision Athletic Director Association Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

In June 2020, Berry sparked the #BeTheSolution campaign to emphasize education and encourage others to implement action for ending social and racial injustice practices. Berry created the challenge internally with an email to the Browns organization and donated $8,460 to the NAACP Legal Defense Fund for efforts after at least 50 employees completed one of the following in honor of George Floyd, Breonna Taylor, Ahmaud Arbery and many more who tragically lost their lives: 1. Spend at least 8 minutes and 46 seconds (in honor of Floyd) on one of a number of educational or dialogue items provided in the email and submit a short written or video reflection on what they learned or will do moving forward. 2. Sign up for any social activism initiative. 3. Donate anything to a social activism cause. The Haslam family pledged to match every dollar raised and contributed to the organizations of employees' choice to a social justice nonprofit. The Browns staff raised more than $185,000 in a two-week span for 14 different charities. Berry later invited fans, players and members of the media to join in the fight to #BeTheSolution.

In 2022, the Browns received the inaugural John B. Wooten Award by the Fritz Pollard Alliance. The award honors NFL teams that embody workplace diversity, equity and inclusion across the hierarchy. The Browns have filled their business and football operations departments with multiple fellowships and minority hires that have helped the organization grow. Among the several diverse hires Berry has made was Kwesi Adofo-Mensah, who served as Vice President of Football Operations from 2020-21, until he was hired as the General Manager for the Minnesota Vikings in 2022. The Browns also hired Catherine Hickman as Assistant General Manager and Vice President of Football Operations, the highest-ranking female football executive in the NFL.

Berry and his wife Brittan have two boys, Zion and Kairo and a girl, Eden Ruth.

DAVE JENKINS

PRESIDENT

22ND YEAR | 22ND YEAR

SCHOOL BALDWIN WALLACE UNIVERSITY | HOMETOWN EAST ROCHESTER, N.Y.

David Jenkins is in his 22nd season with the Browns and leads the team's daily business operations and long-term vision, directing all organizational goals related to the business, including financial management, revenue generation, marketing, stadium operations, government relations and administration. He is also leading the team's future stadium planning process in effort to create a viable, long-term solution for Northeast Ohio. This effort has resulted in collaboration with public officials to secure a public-private partnership to support a new domed Huntington Bank Field in Brook Park that improves the fan experience, attracts large-scale events and drives economic activity to the region. Additionally, Jenkins oversees the CrossCountry Mortgage Campus expansion project in Berea, which broke ground in June of 2025 on a mixed-use development adjacent to the team's practice facility.

In addition to his responsibilities with the Browns, Jenkins also serves as the President of Haslam Sports Group (HSG). He played a pivotal role in the Haslam and Johnson families' creation of HSG, after they acquired the investor-operator rights to Major League Soccer's Columbus Crew, which officially transferred to HSG and partner Dr. Pete Edwards on Jan. 1, 2019. Jenkins was highly involved throughout each stage of an expedited franchise transition that kept the original MLS franchise in its rightful home city.

After acquiring operating rights to the Crew, HSG leadership directed the successful construction of Lower.com Field – a finalist for SportsBusiness Journals' 2022 "Sports Facility of the Year" award – and OhioHealth Performance Center, a new training facility for the team. Lower.com Field is undergoing an expansion of premium areas, set to be complete in 2026. Under HSG, the Crew also raised the MLS Cup in 2020 and 2023, their second and third league titles in club history.

Jenkins also helped the family secure a controlling interest in the Milwaukee Bucks, as the NBA Board of Governors approved an HSG ownership share purchase in 2023, giving the family-run conglomerate ownership stakes in three of the five major North American professional sports leagues. The Bucks investment also includes control and operation of Fiserv Forum; the Froedtert and the Medical College of Wisconsin Sports Science Center, the team's training center, the Wisconsin Herd, the Bucks G League affiliate; and Bucks Gaming, the team's 2K League affiliate.

HSG's mission is to engage and unite communities through premier sports and entertainment experiences. It strives to create world-class organizations that achieve sustainable success, provide a best-in-class fan experience, and give back to their region while serving as stewards of true community assets. Jenkins vets all HSG sports and entertainment investment opportunities and leads the strategic evaluation across all entities to ensure operational alignment while creating cross-organizational efficiencies. HSG's current portfolio includes the Cleveland Browns, operating rights to the Columbus Crew, a controlling interest in the Milwaukee Bucks and current investments in the WNBA, Misfits Gaming Group, StatusPro, Jackpot.com, Wicket, ChargeFUZE, ManCan, Adelphi Bank, Aston Martin Racing, Courtside VC, TMRW Sports, Homage and Dude Perfect.

Jenkins acted as one of the Browns' primary advocates, along with Dee and Jimmy Haslam, Whitney and J.W. Johnson and Haslam Sports Group executives, to bring the NFL Draft to Northeast Ohio. On May 22, 2019, Commissioner Roger Goodell and the NFL announced that Cleveland would host the 2021 NFL Draft, in partnership with the City of Cleveland, Greater Cleveland Sports Commission and Destination Cleveland. Hosted April 29-May 1, Huntington Bank Field and the lakefront served as the main hub for the 2021 NFL Draft in Cleveland, one of the country's largest events responsibly held with comprehensive COVID-19 protocols since the start of the pandemic. The event welcomed approximately 160,000 NFL and Browns fans in-person, including the league's NFL Draft Experience within Huntington Bank Field, and averaged 6.1 million viewers across TV and digital platforms, making it the third most-watched Draft in league history.

JENKINS CONTINUED

Prior to being elevated to President, Jenkins spent seven seasons as the organization's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. He joined the Browns in October 2004 as a financial and business analyst, Jenkins also held positions as the club's director of finance (2006), vice president of finance (2007-10), senior vice president of finance & administration (2010-12) and Chief Financial Officer (2012-2018). In 2007, he was the team's representative at the National Football League's management training program at Stanford University and was a participant in the Leadership Cleveland Class of 2009.

Jenkins began his professional career at Arthur Andersen LLP, where he served as a senior auditor from 1997-2002. He also worked in business development and auditing at KPMG LLP, Proviti Inc. and STERIS Corporation prior to joining the Browns.

Jenkins, who is on Baldwin Wallace University's Board of Trustees, is a member of the board of directors for the Cleveland Browns Foundation, the Downtown Cleveland Alliance, the Greater Cleveland Sports Commission, and Cleveland Development Advisors, and previously contributed as a board member of the MetroHealth Foundation, Cuyahoga Community College Foundation, Achievement Centers for Children, Greater Cleveland Food Bank, the Berea Chamber of Commerce and Lakewood Catholic Academy. COACHING STAFF

KEVIN STEFANSKI

HEAD COACH

20TH YEAR | 6TH YEAR

SCHOOL UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA | HOMETOWN PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Kevin Stefanski was named the 18th full-time head coach in Cleveland Browns history on January 13, 2020. He spent the previous 14 seasons with the Minnesota Vikings, where he moved up the coaching ladder from assistant to the head coach to offensive coordinator.

Stefanski has led the team to two postseason appearances and two 11-win seasons. He joined Pro Football Hall of Famer Paul Brown (1951 and 1953) as the only coaches in team history to record multiple seasons with at least 11 regular season wins.

Stefanski became the 16th coach to win the Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year award multiple times since its inception in 1957. Stefanski won the honors in 2020 and 2023 and joined Forrest Gregg (1976) as the only Browns coaches to win the award.

During the Browns 78-year history, the team has surpassed 6,000 scrimmage yards in a single season just seven times, but have reached the mark in four seasons under Stefanski. Since 2020, the Browns are fifth in the NFL with an average of 130.5 rushing yards per game. Defensively, the Browns are third in the NFL with an average of 322.3 yards allowed per game under Stefanski, including just 204.1 passing yards allowed, the second-fewest since 2020.

Stefanski has recorded a 26-16 (.619) record at Huntington Bank Field. The Browns finished 8-1 at home in 2023, a team record for wins at home.

In his first season with the Browns, Stefanski led the team to its first playoff appearance since 2002 and first playoff victory in 26 years. He notched the most wins (11) by a first-year Browns head coach since Paul Brown had 12 in the team's inaugural season in 1946. Stefanski's 11 regular season wins were the most by a first-year head coach in 2020 and marked just the 11th time since 1970 a first-year coach has won 11 or more games. Stefanski was named the NFL Coach of the Year.

Stefanski's first season was unlike any other in NFL history as he and the club had to navigate the new realities and protocols presented by the COVID-19 pandemic. During his first offseason program, he and the staff had to install a new offensive and defensive system entirely virtual. Stefanski and his coaching staff didn't meet most of the players in-person until training camp, which was completely revamped to adhere to the league's protocols. During the second half of the season, the Browns dealt with numerous stops and starts to their schedule, including complete closures of the team facility, because of positive COVID-19 tests.

Despite the new norms, Stefanski, who serves as the team's play-caller, helped the Browns offense to some of its best numbers in generations. Cleveland's 408 points were its second-most in franchise history, while the club also finished with its second-best total in scrimmage touchdowns (48) and tied for the second-most first downs (355). The Browns finished third in the league in rushing with an average of 148.4 yards per game (the team's best since 1978).

Stefanski helped several Browns earn individual honors as DE Myles Garrett and RT Jack Conklin were named first-team All-Pros by the Associated Press, while G Joel Bitonio and G Wyatt Teller each earned second team honors. Garrett, Bitonio and RB Nick Chubb were selected to the Pro Bowl.

He didn't just bring the team together on the field, he also brought them together in the community. As protests for social justice erupted all across the country during the summer of 2020, Stefanski carved out meeting time to allow the players time to discuss how they felt in the moment. They were also given time off during the funeral of George Floyd, whose controversial death spurred the movement. Stefanski then empowered them to "get in the arena" and use their platform to make a difference however they saw fit.

In 2021, the Browns led the NFL in rushing average with a 5.09 mark, which helped Chubb finish second in the league in rushing yards. The club's rush average was the highest by a Browns team since 1966. The team's 6,090 scrimmage yards were the fourth-most by the club in a single-season.

Defensively, the Browns finished the season fifth in the NFL in total defense, marking just the third time since 1970 that the team has ranked in the top-five and the club's highest finish since 1987. Garrett set the single-season franchise record with 16 sacks.

Stefanski helped five Browns earn Pro Bowl honors. Bitonio, Chubb, Garrett, Teller and CB Denzel Ward all earned Pro Bowl honors. Bitonio and Garrett also earned first team All-Pro honors, while Teller was named to the second team.

In 2022, the Browns recorded the third highest-rushing total in team history with 2,490. Chubb finished third in the NFL with 1,525 rushing yards. The team's 6,200 scrimmage yards were the second most in team history. Defensively, Garrett tied his own team single season record with 16 sacks, making him the NFL only player to record at least 16 sacks in 2021 and 2022. Bitonio, Chubb and Garrett each earned Pro Bowl and AP All-Pro honors, with Bitonio garnering first team All-Pro honors. Teller was also named to the Pro Bowl.

In 2023, the Browns claimed several on-field awards. In addition to Stefanski winning NFL Coach of the Year, Garrett was named the Defensive Player of the Year, QB Joe Flacco won NFL Comeback Player of the Year and Defensive Coordinator Jim Schwartz was named NFL Assistant Coach of the Year. The Browns had seven players (Bitonio, Cooper, Garrett, TE David Njoku, LB Jeremiah Owusu-Koramoah, Teller and Ward) selected to the Pro Bowl, the team's most since 1988.

Despite the club being ravaged by injuries, including season-ending injuries to Chubb, Conklin and QB Deshaun Watson, the team was able to win 11 regular season games. The Browns became the seventh team in the Super Bowl era (1966) to earn at least one win with four different starting quarterbacks in the same season. Watson finished the season 5-1 as a starter and Flacco went 4-1 as a starter, while becoming the first player in Browns history to throw for 300-yards in four consecutive games.

Defensively, the Browns led the NFL in several categories including total defense (270.2 yards per game), passing defense (164.7 yards per game), third down percentage (67-of-230 for 29.1 percent) and first downs allowed (253). The team's 270.2 net yards allowed per game were the fewest allowed in the NFL since the 2014 Seahawks (267.1) and the fewest allowed by a Browns team since 1957. The Browns set a franchise record for sacks in a season with 48. Cleveland also led the league by forcing 112 punts, the third-most forced by an NFL team since 1970.

In 2024, the team traded for WR Jerry Jeudy, who set the Browns single season reception record with 90. While totaling 1,229 receiving yards on the season, Jeudy recorded 235 at Denver on Dec. 2, which was the second-highest output by an NFL player in 2024 and the fourth-highest total by a Brown in a game. QB Jameis Winston set the Browns single-game passing yardage record with 497. Garrett led the NFL with 22 tackles-for-loss and finished second in the league with 14 sacks. Ward led the NFL with a career-high 19 passes defensed. Bitonio, Garrett, Jeudy and Ward were named to the Pro Bowl. It marked Bitonio's seventh consecutive Pro Bowl, the fourth-most by a Browns player. It was Garrett's sixth Pro Bowl selection, the most by a Browns defensive player. Ward was selected to his fourth career Pro Bowl, while the honor was the first for Jeudy.

Stefanski joined the Vikings in 2006 as an assistant to the head coach and remained with the organization under three different head coaches. After serving as assistant quarterbacks coach from 2009-13, Stefanski spent two seasons (2014-15) coaching the tight ends and one season (2016) as running backs coach. From 2017-18, he coached the quarterbacks and added the role of interim offensive coordinator for the final three games before being named the team's offensive coordinator in 2019.

In 2019, the Vikings posted a 10-6 record and earned their first road playoff win since January 9, 2005, after defeating the Saints, 26-20, in New Orleans. Three offensive players were selected to the Pro Bowl as RB Dalvin Cook and FB C.J. Ham were each named to their first career Pro Bowl with Cook voted a starter. QB Kirk Cousins was also named to the Pro Bowl.

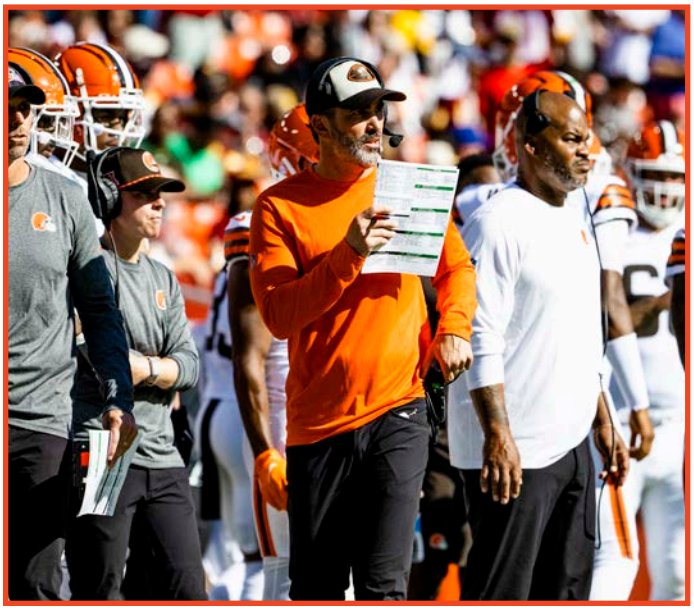
In his first full year under Stefanski, Cousins set a single-season career high for passer rating with a 107.4 mark, fourth best in the NFL in 2019. Cousins also finished with a career-low six interceptions, while adding 26 touchdowns and a 69.1 completion percentage, fourth in the NFL in 2019. He set a Vikings record for completions in a season with 425 and finished with the second-most passing yards (4,298) and passer rating (107.4) in Vikings history.

With 1,135 rushing yards, Cook became the eighth player in Vikings history to rush for 1,000 yards in a single season and the first since Adrian Peterson in 2015. Despite missing the final two games of the season, Cook finished fourth in the NFL with 13 rushing touchdowns and seventh in scrimmage yards with 1,654.

WR Stefon Diggs set a career high with 1,130 receiving yards, giving him back-to-back 1,000-receiving yard seasons for the first time in his career. Diggs finished fourth in the NFL with an average of 17.9 yards per reception in 2019.

Stefanski was elevated from quarterbacks coach to interim offensive coordinator in Week 15 of the 2018 season and promptly guided the unit to two of its best showings of the season. In his first game calling plays, Minnesota scored a season-high 41 points and recorded 418 yards of offense en route to a 41-17 victory over the Dolphins.

As quarterbacks coach in 2017, the Vikings were forced to go to their backup, Case Keenum, early in the season after starter Sam Bradford went down with an injury. Keenum, who had completed 58 percent of his passes previously owned a 9-15 career record as a starter, went on to complete nearly 68 percent of his throws with 22 touchdowns and seven interceptions while leading the Vikings to a record of 11-3.



In his lone season coaching the running backs in 2016, the Vikings battled injuries along the offensive line and to RB Adrian Peterson that caused the runner to miss 13 games. The running game leaned on veterans Jerick McKinnon and Matt Asiata as the duo combined for 941 yards and eight rushing touchdowns.

As tight ends coach, Stefanski helped develop Pro Bowl TE Kyle Rudolph. In 2015, his unit helped clear the way for Adrian Peterson to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,485 yards.

Stefanski was elevated to assistant quarterbacks coach in 2009, where he had a hands-on role in one of the most successful offensive seasons in Vikings history. Veteran QB Brett Favre signed with the team in mid-August and closed the season with 4,202 passing yards and 33 touchdowns. The Vikings finished the season 12-4 and won the NFC North.

Stefanski spent 2006-08 working directly with Head Coach Brad Childress on administrative duties and special projects. Stefanski first worked with Childress during Eagles training camp in 2005 as part of the team's operations department.

Stefanski spent the 2005 season at his alma mater, Pennsylvania, as assistant director of football operations, coordinating all aspects of the Quakers' day-to-day operations.

A team captain as a senior in 2003, Stefanski was part of one of the most successful stretches in the history of the Quaker football program. The team won three Ivy League titles (2000, 2002 and 2003), and went 10-0 in 2003 to become the first undefeated Penn team in a decade. During Stefanski's tenure, the squad posted a 42-7 overall record and a 32-3 mark in Ivy League play.

Stefanski earned a bachelor's degree in communications from Pennsylvania and attended St. Joseph's Prep in Philadelphia.

In 2022, the Browns received the inaugural John B. Wooten Award by the Fritz Pollard Alliance. The award honors NFL teams that embody workplace diversity, equity and inclusion across the hierarchy. The Browns have filled their business and football operations departments with multiple fellowships and minority hires that have helped the organization grow. Stefanski, along with EVP and GM Andrew Berry, created the Bill Willis Coaching Fellowship for a rising minority coach with a focus on the offensive side of the ball. Stefanski also hired Callie Brownson as Chief of Staff in 2020, who later became first woman to coach an NFL position group in a regular-season game.

In 2024, Stefanski and his family launched the Keepers Foundation. The foundation focuses on serving underprivileged kids in Northeast Ohio. Each of the past two summers the foundation has hosted dual events, Under the Lights with Coach Stefanski & Friends, a flag football tournament held at Huntington Bank Field and Night Out by the Lake with Coach Stefanski & Friends, an evening out in Cleveland fundraiser.

The Stefanski family has made a name in athletics as Kevin's father, Ed, was a basketball standout at Penn and has held executive positions with the NBA's New Jersey Nets, Philadelphia 76ers, Toronto Raptors, Memphis Grizzlies and Detroit Pistons.

Stefanski and wife, Michelle, have a daughter and two sons.

• Tied for team lead with career-high 14 passes defensed in 2023.
• Helped Browns defense lead the NFL in total yards allowed and passing yards allowed in 2023.
• Recorded first career interception and returned it 34 yards for a touchdown at Baltimore on Nov. 12, 2023, while adding half a sack.
• Started 15 games in 2022, compiling 42 tackles, half-sack and six passes defensed.
• Finished second on the team with nine passes defensed as a rookie in 2021.

• Also lettered three times in basketball.
• Has three older sisters who all participated in gymnastics growing up. Sister, Zakiya, played college basketball at Division III North Park University.

BEYOND FOOTBALL

• Was announced as the first-ever ambassador for the Cleveland Browns Girls Flag Football programming presented by Gatorade and in association with Bridgestone in February 2025. The programming provides resources and information to players, coaches and parents to expand their knowledge of the game, as well as opportunities through the Browns, USA Football, NFL FLAG and the NFL.
• Wore a jacket during the draft with phrases sewn across the sleeves and on the back: "Women Can Ball Too," "Black Lives Matter," "Say Their Names" and "Stop Asian Hate."
• Attended a gathering and walks in Evanston following the murder of George Floyd.
• Started advocating for women's sports in college after seeing the massive difference in attendance and overall attention women's teams received in college. Attended as many women's basketball games, home and away, as he could, and also frequently attended women's soccer and lacrosse games.
• Supported Play Like a Girl! For My Cause, My Cleats in 2022. Play Like a Girl! leverages the transferable skills middle school girls gain from sport to give them a competitive edge in the classroom and, ultimately, propel them into competitive, male-dominated careers in STEM as young women.
• Supported "Build the Bridge" during My Cause, My Cleats in 2021. The Cleveland Browns partnered with the African-American Football Coaches Association to support "Build the Bridge," designed to empower, develop and unify high school football teams through meaningful interactions between programs of different racial and/or socio-economic demographics in Northeast Ohio.
• Wore cleats supporting "DNA Level C Boxing Club" during My Cleats, My Cleats 2024 to support ending gun violence. Newsome lost a cousin to gun violence and the experience shifted his perspective on life. He also wore the cleats in game for the first time since because of how personal the cause is to him.

- In 2024, Ward traveled to the Columbus Statehouse where he helped to provide written testimonies in support of House Bill 47. A few months later, House Bill 47 was signed by Ohio Governor Mike DeWine, requiring all public school and non-public charter schools – along with all municipally owned or operated sports and recreational centers – to have automatic external defibrillators (AEDs).

• Has raised awareness for heart health through My Cause, My Cleats.

• Ward and the Make Them Know Your Name foundation covered monthly expenses for 21 people who struggled to sustain small businesses or employment in 2020 when the COVID-19 pandemic shut down the country. The people he helped ranged from a video production company owner, a theatre owner, family-run pizza shop owners and more. His donations last spring carried a significant impact on several businesses and people who could still keep their doors open today.

• Through foundation in 2022, made $150,000 donation supporting University Hospitals (UH) Harrington Heart & Vascular Institute. They will launch a community education initiative surrounding heart health.

• In 2024, his foundation partnered with Avive to donate over 100 Avive AED kits to local non-profits, community organizations, and small businesses, accumulating a $150,000 investment in the health and safety of the Cleveland community".

• Hosted Coat Drives annually during the past three winters, giving away more than 1,000 coats for students at East Prep Village Prep Willard School, Marion C. Seltzer Elementary and Garfield Elementary School.

• Has been volunteering at shelters and food banks during Thanksgiving since he was a young child, including at the Greater Cleveland Food Bank.

HISTORY

The Cleveland Browns have one of the richest traditions in professional football, boasting eight league titles, including four NFL championships. In addition, 17 former Browns have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, the seventh-most of any NFL franchise.

The Browns were founded in 1945 as a charter member of the All-America Football Conference (AAFC), under businessman Arthur B. "Mickey" McBride, who would name Paul Brown the team's general manager and head coach. The franchise conducted a team naming contest, and the No. 1 choice was "Browns," highlighting Paul Brown's popularity in the area. In addition to Brown, that first team consisted of future Hall of Famers in center Frank Gatski, quarterback Otto Graham, offensive tackle/kicker Lou Groza, receiver Dante Lavelli, fullback Marion Motley and lineman Bill Willis.

In their first season in the AAFC (1946), the Browns posted a 12-2 record and went on to defeat the New York Yankees in the league's inaugural championship game, 14-9. They were equally successful off the field, averaging more than 57,000 fans to their home games at Municipal Stadium. The Browns would go on to claim the AAFC title in all four years of the league's existence, including a 15-0 record in 1948.

In 1950, the Browns were one of only three AAFC teams to merge with the National Football League, along with the San Francisco 49ers and Baltimore Colts. Despite joining a more established league, Cleveland continued its success as they marched through the 1950 regular season with a 10-2 record before defeating the New York Giants in the playoffs and the Los Angeles Rams in the championship game. In fact, the Browns appeared in the NFL Championship game in each of their first seven years in the league (1950-56), coming away with three titles during that time (1950, 1954-55).

Quarterback Otto Graham guided the Browns to the championship game in all 10 of his professional seasons, helping the team capture seven titles (four AAFC and three NFL). Graham led the AAFC in passing all four years and led the NFL in passing twice (1953 and 1955), while totaling 23,584 passing yards combined in both leagues.

In 1957, the Browns selected Syracuse running back Jim Brown with the sixth overall pick of the NFL Draft. Brown would go on to lead the league in rushing that year with 942 yards in just 12 games as he was named NFL Rookie of the Year. He helped the Browns back to the NFL title game that season, although they dropped a 59-14 decision to the Detroit Lions. The following year, Brown again led the league in rushing, with 1,527 yards and 27 touchdowns. It marked one of seven times over the next eight years in which he rushed for more than 1,100 yards.

After going consecutive seasons without making the playoffs for the first time in franchise history (1961-62), Blanton Collier took over for Paul Brown as head coach in 1963, and guided the team to a regular season record of 10-4 as they returned to the postseason, led by Jim Brown's career-high 1,863 rushing yards. The following year, the Browns put together a record of 10-3-1, capped by a 27-0 victory over Baltimore in the NFL Championship game. The 1964 season marked the first of three NFL title game appearances for the Browns over the next five years.

Following the 1965 season, Brown unexpectedly announced his retirement to pursue an acting career. In his final year, Brown rushed for 1,544 yards, the third straight year and eighth time in his nine NFL seasons that he topped the league's rushing chart.

Following Brown's retirement, Cleveland could not be derailed as the team qualified for the postseason in three of the next four years, including two NFL Championship game appearances (1968-69). Running back Leroy Kelly, an eighth-round draft choice of the team in 1964, rushed for more than 1,000 yards in three of those seasons (1966-68).

On Sept. 21, 1970, the Browns became part of history as they had the distinction of hosting the New York Jets in the first-ever Monday Night Football game, emerging with a 31-21 victory.

Collier wrapped up his coaching career following the 1970 season. He registered a 76-34-2 (.688) regular season record and guided the Browns to four NFL Championship games.

The decade of the 1970s started with the Browns making two trips to the playoffs in the first three years. Then came a stretch in which the Browns missed the postseason seven straight seasons (1973-79). In the final year of that span, however, the Browns, under the guidance of second-year Head Coach Sam Rutigliano, put together a record of 9-7 and affectionately earned the nickname of the "Kardiac Kids." Of the team's nine victories that year, seven came by seven points or less. Two of those wins occurred in overtime, while three others were decided within the final two minutes of regulation.

This excitement continued into the following season of 1980. After starting the year 2-3, the Browns reeled off five straight wins and victories in eight of their next nine. Of those eight triumphs, six came by six points or less. On the final week of the season, Don Cockroft's 22-yard field goal with less than two minutes to play lifted the Browns to a 27-24 victory over the Bengals at Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, as Cleveland captured its first AFC Central crown since 1971 and its first playoff berth since 1972.

In 1985, the franchise underwent a makeover as Marty Schottenheimer was named the team's sixth full-time head coach and the club selected University of Miami quarterback Bernie Kosar - a Youngstown native who grew up in Boardman, Ohio - in the NFL Supplemental Draft. By midseason of his rookie year, Kosar had cracked the starting lineup, leading the Browns to wins in four of his first six starts. Cleveland went on to post an 8-8 record that year, which was good for first place in the AFC Central division. That season, running backs Earnest Byner and Kevin Mack both topped the 1,000-yard rushing mark, a feat that would not be accomplished again by a pair of running backs on the same team in the same season until 2008.

The Browns seemed poised for their first playoff win since 1969 as they held a 21-3 third-quarter lead over the Dolphins at the Orange Bowl before Miami reeled off 21 unanswered points to come away with a 24-21 victory. With Kosar at the helm, the Browns would win three AFC Central division titles over the next four years (1986-87, 1989) and qualify for the playoffs on each occasion. Three of those four appearances resulted in a spot in the AFC Championship game, only to be stopped short of their ultimate destination by the Denver Broncos each time.

In Aug. of 1991, the Browns moved into a new administrative complex in Berea and began holding training camp there in July of the following year.

On Nov. 6, 1995, it was announced that the Browns had signed a deal to relocate to Baltimore for the following season. In Feb. 1996, the NFL announced that the Browns would be "deactivated" for three years and that a new stadium would be built for a new Browns team - either as an expansion team or one that would move from another city - that would begin play in 1999. Cleveland NFL Football (Cleveland Browns Trust) was formed by the NFL with Bill Futterer as President and NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue as Trustee. The Trust represented the NFL in the stadium design and construction, managed the sale of suites and club seats, and sold Permanent Seat Licenses and season tickets. In March 1998, at the owners meeting in Orlando, Tagliabue announced that the Browns would be an expansion team rather than a relocated team. On Sept. 8, 1998, the NFL awarded the new Cleveland Browns franchise to a group led by Alfred Lerner, and the NFL formally transferred ownership on Oct. 23, 1998.

The new Cleveland Browns franchise played their first game on Aug. 9, 1999 when they edged the Dallas Cowboys, 20-17 in overtime, in the annual Hall of Fame Game at Fawcett Stadium in Canton to open the preseason. They played their first regular season game on Sept. 12 against their long-time rival, the Pittsburgh Steelers at FirstEnergy Stadium. Their initial regular season victory occurred in dramatic fashion as a 56-yard Hail Mary from quarterback Tim Couch to wide receiver Kevin Johnson as time expired lifted the Browns to a 21-16 decision over the Saints at the Superdome, in what would be the first of two wins in that first season back for Cleveland.

On Oct. 23, 2002, owner Alfred Lerner passed away and his son, Randy, took over control of the team. Later that year, the Browns won their final two regular season games to finish with a record of 9-7, earning them their first playoff berth since returning to the league just four years earlier.

With the third overall pick in the 2007 NFL Draft, the Browns selected left tackle Joe Thomas. He played every offensive snap for the Browns from his rookie season through Week 7 in 2017, when his streak ended at 10,363, the longest streak in NFL history. He also became the fifth player and the only lineman in NFL history to be selected to the Pro Bowl each of his first 10 seasons.

The team unveiled a Ring of Honor at FirstEnergy Stadium at halftime of the home opener against the Kansas City Chiefs on Sept. 19, 2010. The inaugural class consisted of the franchise's first 16 Hall of Famers, as the name of each man was permanently displayed on the stadium's upper deck facade. In 2012, the years of the team's eight league championships were added to the southeast end of the facade. In 2018, the number 10,363 was enshrined to honor Joe Thomas' snap streak. In 2019, Clay Matthews was inducted into the Browns Ring of Honor. In 2021, Hall of Fame WR Mac Speedie was inducted.

On Aug. 2, 2012, Dee and Jimmy Haslam agreed to purchase controlling interest of the Cleveland Browns from Randy Lerner. The NFL approved the Haslams as the owners on Oct. 16.

On Oct. 29, 2017, the Browns played their first regular season game outside of the United States when they faced the Minnesota Vikings at Twickenham Stadium in London, England.

The Browns selected QB Baker Mayfield with the first overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft and in just 13 starts, he set the NFL record for touchdown passes by a rookie with 27.

Kevin Stefanski was named Head Coach on Jan. 13, 2020 and Andrew Berry was named Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager on Jan. 28, 2020. On January 15, 2020, Mac Speedie was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2020.

Kevin Stefanski led the Browns to an 11-5 record in 2020 to clinch the team's first playoff berth since 2002 and ending the league's longest playoff drought for a club. The team then went on to grab their first postseason victory since the 1994 season, beating the Pittsburgh Steelers in the AFC Wild Card Round on Jan. 10, 2021.

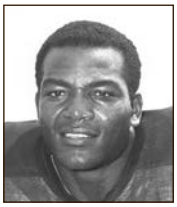
DE Myles Garrett set a single-season franchise record after recording 16 sacks in both 2021 and 2022. On Oct. 16, 2022, Garrett passed Clay Matthews Jr. (62.0) for most sacks in Browns' franchise history. RB Nick Chubb (1,525 rushing yards) became the second back in team history to achieve 1,500 rushing yards in a single season (Jim Brown in 1958, 1963, & 1965). In addition, Joe Thomas was inducted into the Browns' Ring of Honor and named a first-ballot Hall of Famer on Feb. 9, 2023, five years afer his retirement.

Joe Thomas was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his inaugural year of eligibility, marking the first Cleveland Brown to receive this honor since the team's return to Cleveland in 1999. The Browns capped off the 2023 season with an 11-6 record and secured a spot in the postseason. This achievement ties for the second-highest number of regular-season wins in the team's history, behind only the 1986 team's 12 wins. Head coach Kevin Stefanski (2020 and 2023) joined Pro Football Hall of Famer Paul Brown (1951 and 1953) as the only coaches in team history to achieve multiple seasons with at least 11 regular-season victories. Additionally, the team reintroduced their white alternate throwback helmets, complementing the same white throwback jerseys worn in 2021. This revival brings back a classic look not seen since the Browns' inception in 1946. The Browns cleaned up at NFL Honors with four awards total with DE Myles Garrett winning Defensive Player of the Year, Kevin Stefanski for Coach of the Year, Assistant Coach of the Year going to Jim Schwartz and Joe Flacco collecting Comeback Player of the Year. The team brought back a piece of their storied history, as the helmets will once again feature the white face mask that was wore by the franchise from 1975-95 and 1999-2005.

On Sept. 3, 2024, the Browns and The Huntington National Bank announced a 20-year partnership that includes the naming rights to be called Huntington Bank Field. During the 2024 season, DE Myles Garrett became the first player in history to record at least 14 sacks in four consecutive seasons and WR Jerry Jeudy set a single-season record with 90 catches.

#14 OTTO GRAHAM

From 1946-1955, Otto Graham guided the Browns to 10 league championship games and NFL Championships in 1950, 1954 and 1955. He led the NFL in passing for two seasons and recorded 23,584 career passing yards. In 1953, Graham finished the season with a 64.73 completion percentage, the highest in club history. He was an All-League selection from 1951-55. Graham was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1965.



#32 JIM BROWN

Brown was the NFL's leading rusher in eight seasons and holds the Browns franchise record for career rushing yards, attempts and touchdowns. An All-America selection from Syracuse in 1956, Brown was named NFL Rookie of the Year in 1957. He participated in nine consecutive Pro Bowls from 1958-66 and was voted NFL most valuable player in 1957, 1958 and 1965. Brown was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1971.

After being selected first in the 1961 NFL draft, the Browns acquired Ernie Davis in a trade with the Washington Redskins. Tragically, Davis passed away two years later from leukemia and never played a professional game. A star running back from Syracuse, Davis was the first African-American to win the Heisman Trophy in 1961 and guided the Orangemen to their only national championship the same year.

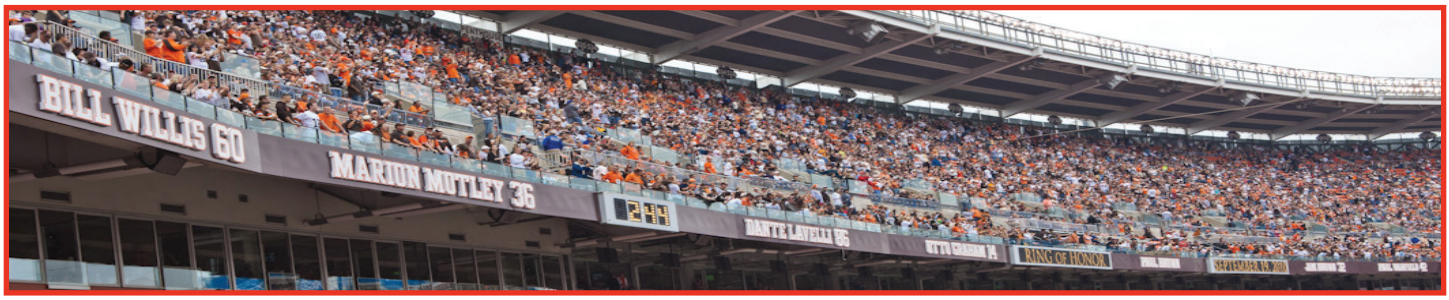
#46 DON FLEMING

Don Fleming was selected by the Chicago Cardinals in the 28th round of the 1959 NFL draft. He was traded to the Browns in 1960 and was a mainstay at the safety position. From 1960-63, Fleming intercepted 10 passes and was named to The Sporting News All-AFC team in 1962. During the 1963 offseason, Fleming and a co-worker were sadly electrocuted working a construction job. His passing came a few weeks after Ernie Davis' death.

#76 LOU GROZA

Lou Groza is Cleveland's all-time top scorer with 1,349 points on 234 FGs, 641 PATs and one TD. He scored at least one point in 107 consecutive games and his last-second field goal sealed the 1950 NFL Championship for the Browns. Originally an offensive left tackle, Groza suffered a back injury which converted him into a kicking specialist from 1961-67. He was an All-NFL tackle on six occasions and was the NFL Player of the Year in 1954. Groza was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1974.

CLEVELAND BROWNS
RING OF HONOR



To pay homage to their great history - one of the richest in the NFL - the Browns unveiled the Cleveland Browns Ring of Honor during a special ceremony at halftime of the 2010 regular season home opener, against Kansas City on Sept. 19. The initial group of inductees consisted of the 16 former Browns enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The names of these 16 greats are prominently displayed on the facade of the upper deck of the stadium. In 2012, the years of the team's eight league championships were added to the facade at the southeast end of Cleveland Browns Stadium. On Sept. 22, 2019, Clay Matthews was inducted to the Browns Ring of Honor. Matthews, a first-round pick in 1978, played 16 seasons (1978-93) with the Browns and is considered one of the league's best linebackers and most durable players. In 2021, Mac Speedie, played seven seasons (1946-52) with the Browns and was inducted into the Browns Ring of Honor. In 2022, Joe Thomas was inducted into the Browns Ring of Honor.

GAME DAY

HOME OF THE CLEVELAND BROWNS

Huntington Bank Field is home not only to a storied football franchise but also to a dedicated, passionate group of people who are the world's greatest fans. At Huntington Bank Field, fans take pride in supporting their team in a safe, enthusiastic and family-oriented atmosphere. This special combination of sportsmanship and exhilaration makes game days with the Browns a memorable experience.

Huntington Bank Field was built on the hallowed ground of the old Municipal Stadium where the legendary Coach Paul Brown established Cleveland's first football dynasty in the 1940s and 18 Cleveland Browns established their credentials for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton. In 2010, the team's Pro Football Hall of Fame enshrinees were further honored by the unveiling of their names in the Ring of Honor, which recognizes their contributions to the Cleveland Browns organization. The names of these 18 greats, as well as LB Clay Matthews, who was added in 2019, are now permanently displayed on the facade of the stadium's upper deck.

In September 2024, the Browns and Huntington National Bank announced a 20-year partnership that includes the naming rights to the Browns' stadium, renaming the building as Huntington Bank Field. As part of the partnership, Huntington Bank, a super-regional bank headquartered in Columbus, Ohio, also became the team's official and exclusive banking partner. The partnership strengthens both organizations' shared vision and long-standing commitment to the Cleveland community and broader region.

Huntington Bank Field is located next to the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame and the Great Lakes Science Center, while on the south side of the stadium, fans can grab items to represent their favorite team at the Pro Shop.

NOT JUST FOR BROWNS GAMES

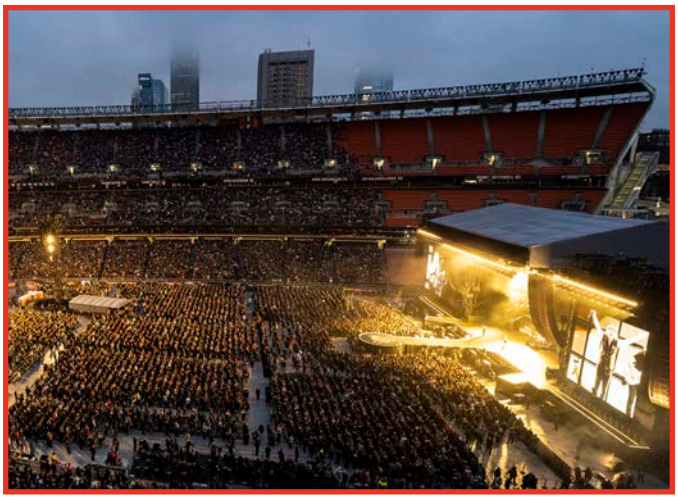
Huntington Bank Field also plays host to various major events such as concerts, family shows and other sporting events and is available for private functions in its 15+ premium event spaces such as wedding receptions, proms, holiday parties and business luncheons.

This year, the venue hosted a one-of-its kind Draft Party free and exclusive to Browns season ticket members where Rock and Roll Hall of Fame Inductee Journey took the stage and performed, and fans gathered to watch the 2025 NFL Draft. It also hosted the Columbus Crew and Inter Miami CF Match on April 19, with 60,614 supporters in the building, setting a new home attendance record for the Crew.

AC/DC hit the stage in May at Huntington Bank Field as the final stop on the Power Up Tour, the band's first time returning to Cleveland since 2016. Morgan Wallen will perform back-to-back Nights at Huntington Bank Field on August 15 and August 16 as part of his I'm the Problem Tour.

Last summer, the stadium saw the Rolling Stones hit the stage at Huntington Bank Field in June as part of the Hackney Diamonds Tour and in August, WWE SummerSlam, one of WWE's largest annual events, returned Cleveland for the first time since 1996, setting an American attendance record for the event. Billy Joel and Rod Stewart also played together for the first time ever together live at Huntington Bank Field in September.

The venue was also the host site for the 2021 NFL Draft. In 2022, the venue welcomed Def Leppard and Motley Crue for "The Stadium Tour", followed by a Machine Gun Kelly for a sold-out, hometown concert on the "Mainstream Sell Out" global arena tour, of which Huntington Bank Field was the only stadium-show. The stadium also hosted Top Golf Live Stadium Tour late in the summer months. The venue also played host to Monster Jam in the 2022 and 2023 summers.



In 2017 and 2019, the stadium played host to international soccer doubleheaders featuring the U.S. Men's National Team during the Concacaf Gold Cup.

In 2018, Huntington Bank Field also welcomed the U.S. Soccer Women's National Team for a friendly against China PR and two major stadium concert tours – Taylor Swift's Reputation Tour and the JAY-Z and Beyoncé OTR II tour.

In 2017, the facility also hosted a U2 concert. On June 5, 2016, the stadium welcomed the U.S. Soccer Women's National Team for the second leg of a two-game friendly series against Japan.

In 2015, Huntington Bank Field welcomed One Direction and Luke Bryan for top-notch concerts. In 2012, "The Brothers of the Sun Tour," featuring Kenny Chesney and Tim McGraw, came to Huntington Bank Field. The stadium has also played host to Kenny Chesney concerts in 2007 and 2008, as well as The Three Tenors (2000), George Strait (2000) and *NSYNC (2001).

On May 29, 2013, the U.S. Men's National Team hosted Belgium for the first international soccer match at the stadium since 2006.

On six occasions since 2005, the High School Charity Games have been staged at Huntington Bank Field, showcasing some of the top area high school football talent. College football has been a regular on Huntington Bank Field's docket. On September 21, 2013, Tuskegee University and Winston Salem State University squared off in the Third Annual Cleveland Classic HBCU football game. From 2006-2013, a college game was played at the stadium each year except 2010. Additionally, the stadium hosted the Ohio State and University of Michigan hockey teams for Faceoff on the Lake in February of 2023.

CROSS COUNTRY MORTGAGE CAMPUS

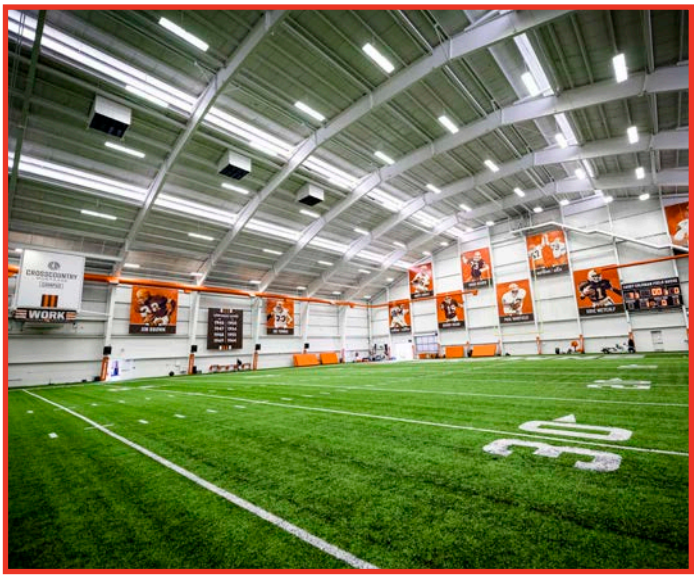
In July 2021, the Cleveland Browns and CrossCountry Mortgage, LLC, one of the nation's largest and fastest growing retail mortgage lenders, announced a long-term partnership that includes naming rights for the team's "CrossCountry Mortgage Campus" training and administrative complex in Berea. The building originally opened in August of 1991 and has undergone many renovations since its debut.

The 115,000 square foot building has two floors, both of which have been renovated in recent years. In addition to making significant investments to improve the CrossCountry Mortgage Campus in recent years which included an extension of their lease with the City of Berea, Haslam Sports Group has acquired a number of properties in the area surrounding the fields and main building, which opened in 1991.

During the 2013 offseason, the facility's second floor underwent a 36,000 square foot renovation. The space boasts an open floor plan and was designed to create a vibrant, energetic and collaborative space for the club's football and business operations. The space houses a state-of-the-art media studio where radio and television production take place in-house.

Connected to the facility is the team's 60,000 square foot indoor field house. The facility also hosts four regulation-size natural grass practice fields ideal for year-round football operations, including the club's training camp.

The Cleveland Browns and City of Berea agreed to a lease amendment that guarantees the team's facility will remain in Berea through at least 2028.



CROSS COUNTRY MORTGAGE CAMPUS EXPANSION

In June, the Browns and Haslam Sports Group officially broke ground on the CrossCountry Mortgage Expansion, including over 16 acres of community, medical and multi-family living and commercial spaces that will be beneficial for the region. The groundbreaking ceremony included representatives from the City of Berea, CrossCountry Mortgage, Haslam Sports Group, DiGeronimo Companies and University Hospitals. An extension of the existing footprint of the Cleveland Browns in Berea, this new neighborhood is anticipated to open in early 2027.

The CrossCountry Mortgage Campus Expansion will include a mixed-use neighborhood adjacent to the existing Cleveland Browns facility and will be developed by Ohio-based DiGeronimo Companies. The expansion's main feature will be a community field lined for multiple sports for youth, high school and adult participation that has space for over 6,000 guests. The field will also be the new home field of the Berea-Midpark High School football team.

There will also be The Barker Hotel - a Tribute Portfolio Hotel by Marriott developed in partnership with Crawford Hoying and operated by Shaner Hotel Group - a sports medicine facility operated by University Hospitals (UH), 150 market-rate apartments, office space and 15,000 square footage of retail space to support the new pedestrian-friendly neighborhood.

CLEVELAND BROWNS TRAINING CAMP HISTORY

The CrossCountry Mortgage Campus will host all of 2025 Browns training camp, which marks the 31th time (1992-95, 1999-2025) the team conducted training camp at the facility.

BROWNS UNIFORMS

In July 2025 the Browns announced "Alpha Dawg" presented by DUDE WIPES, an all-brown alternate helmet that will be worn with an all-brown jersey combination during the 2025 season. The helmet features a matte all brown shell, with a brown stripe between two orange stripes in the middle and an all-brown facemask. This will be the first time in the history of the organization that a brown helmet will be worn.

"'Alpha Dawg' embodies what we set out to be as the Cleveland Browns, the leaders of the pack. We're excited about this new alternate helmet and the ode it pays to the rich history of the color brown as part of our organization, switching it up from our iconic orange helmets," said JW Johnson, Cleveland Browns Executive Vice President and Partner. "We look forward to the team wearing the all-brown helmet and uniform combination for the first time on September 21 at Huntington Bank Field and leaning into the 'Alpha Dawg' mentality throughout the 2025 season."

For the 2024 season, the Browns brought back a piece of their storied history with the 2024 season, as the helmets once again featured the white face mask.

From 1975-1995, and again from 1999-2005, the Browns' helmets featured white face masks. They were associated with the Kardiac Kids and the AFC Championship era of the Browns.

For the 2023 season, the Browns unveiled white alternate throwback helmets as part of the White Out Series, presented by Browns partner DUDE Wipes. For three games in 2023, the Browns wore a white alternate helmet with the same white throwback jerseys the team wore in 2021, returning a look that hasn't been worn by the Browns since the franchise was born in 1946. The helmet included an orange and brown stripe down the middle and marked the first time the Browns have worn a non-orange helmet in over seven decades.
